VIRGINIA LEAGUE MAGNATES ARE OPTIMISTIC OVER PROSPECTS FOR RECORD-MAKING SEASON

Newport News Believes That Pennant Winner Must Defeat Shipbuilders.

Newport News, Va., April 15.—Newport News line-up against Roanoke in the opening game of the Virginia League season to-morrow follows: McCabe, left field; Kreppe, second base; Gondoli, shortstop; Walters, third base; Smith, center field; Meixell, right field; Carney, first base; Matthews, catcher; Paxson, pitcher.

"We should take the series from Roanoke. With Danny Paxson in the box to-morrow, we should win the opening game, and I am confident that we will. This youngster is showing well this season, and he will be far better than he was last year, because of his experience and the fact that he has a better ball club behind him," said Manager Matthews.

"As for the prospects for the season, my opinion is this: The team that will win the 1914 pennant will have to beat Newport News.

"We have the best club in the league. By that I do not mean that there may not be individual players on other teams who are better than any player we have, but we have the best balanced ball club. And we have a club that can hit. As for speed, there is nothing in the league that can touch us. There is not a slow man on the team and nearly all of them are unusually fast.

"My infield is experienced and fast and is great on defensive work. Its offensive power is far above that of the usual inner defense. In the outfield we have two experienced men and one youngster, just the right mixture, and we have three men who are the speediest outer gardeners in the circuit.

"I have some youngsters in my pitching department, but they are promising and should develop. In Paxson and Smith I have two experienced men. Claude Gilliam is a likely looking young pitcher and will develop. Pierce and others also show class, and should make no detestable men.

"I am more than satisfied with the prospect for the season. We are in the shape considering the bad weather during the training period, and I repeat, the team that wins the pennant must beat Newport News."

Atlantic City, N. J., April 15.—Today was an off-day both in the number of teams entered in the annual bowling tournament and in the score. The tournament, which is being held by the Atlantic City Bowling Club, is the largest of its kind in the country.

WHERE VIRGINIA LEAGUE TEAMS PLAY TO-DAY. Petersburg at Norfolk. Portsmouth at Newport News.

The Virginia League of professional baseball clubs will start its season today. Richmond will entertain Petersburg at home, and Manager Ray Ryan has hopes of winning the initial contest.

In an effort to bring about this result he will start Pitcher Sloan, recently secured from the Birmingham club, of the Southern Association. Manager Heinrich Busch, of Petersburg, is equally anxious to start the season with a game won. But that's neither here nor there.

Newport News will be at home to Roanoke, while Norfolk will entertain visitors from Portsmouth. There are six clubs in the Virginia League, and there are six managers anxious to have the first charge in the ledger on the right side. From all reports—some of which you can read on this page—all six clubs are due to win.

Some may lose, indeed, under normal conditions there are likely to be at least three losers, but that doesn't alter the case. When you read these few lines announcing that the Virginia League season is about to begin, take our word for it that six clubs are claiming victory.

It's a rather different season from any we have been called upon to inaugurate heretofore. One of the differences, in fact, the real difference, is that Richmond is deprived of week-end games, a feature that allowed the local management to print in large letters over the box office "Change Here" every Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Busch Refuses to Announce His Pitcher Immediately Before Game.

Petersburg, Va., April 15.—The champions of 1913 will carry fifteen players to Richmond to-morrow, and Manager Busch, while not being over-optimistic, is strong in the belief that his team will make as good showing at the start as any of the other teams composing the Virginia League. Busch's line-up for the initial game will be as follows:

Keller, right field; Laval, center field; Busch, shortstop; Craven, left field; Buckel, second base; Damrau, third base; Barnett, first base; Laughlin, catcher; Lowe, catcher; Richmond, pitcher; Austin, pitcher; Pearson, pitcher; Nolan, pitcher; Swain, pitcher; Busch has not as yet made up his mind as to who will be his battery for to-morrow's game, saying that the pitcher who looks best to him after the warming up to-morrow will be sent in. As a whole, Busch is satisfied with the team, but the weather having been so bad for practice games, he has not rounded them into the condition that he wished for. The infield, modestly says Busch, is working like clockwork. The outfield has nearly rounded into shape, but the pitching staff has not had the opportunity to prove their worth. Busch will play the game to win, and with the help of his teammates, hopes to return home to-morrow with the scalp of his old enemy dangling at his belt.
